

Director's Message

Dear Alumnus,

The bond between a student and teacher is unique. The place where this bond is defined and nurtured etches a special image in one's journey of life. It feeds memories, balms nostalgia and weaves dreams. This eternal symbiosis of stakeholders lasts in any great institute and propels it.

I am glad to welcome you to this celebration of diversity and colors on the pathway of our Law School. Let us enjoy the bounty and grace of luck which stands our law school among top four in the country and renowned in the world.

Come and join hands in this endeavour of excellence. Support our students and encourage their talents. Guide us on how we could be more meaningful towards you and make a difference to the legal community

Peace and joy,

Dr Shashikala Gurpur
